Welcome to the Calgary Philharmonic Orchestra!

The Calgary Philharmonic Orchestra (CPO) is a not-for-profit organization that presents over 80 live concerts to more than 110,000 people each season to fit all musical tastes, from Classical Giants to Rock and Roll hits and Family Favourites.

The CPO serves as an active leader in the community, reaching over 20,000 people yearly throughout Southern Alberta by providing educational performances and outreach opportunities for students, seniors, and other charitable organizations.

“Our mission is to create vibrant live orchestra music experiences that inspires, enrich and entertain. To deepen our connection with Calgary through relevant education and community programs and to create an open, mutually respectful community of staff, musician, stakeholders and volunteers through which we will nurture a spirit of pride, tradition and shared values.”

If you are interested in volunteering with the Calgary Philharmonic Orchestra and helping us achieve our mission while gaining a wonderful orchestral experience, we invite you to complete this form.
