Calgary Phil Welcomes Multiple Grammy + Juno Award-winning Violinist

Acclaimed virtuoso James Ehnes performs Brahms' Violin Concerto with the Calgary Philharmonic

Calgary, AB (2024) — The Calgary Philharmonic is thrilled to welcome back Canada's superstar of the violin for the concert On Stage with James Ehnes on November 30. Ehnes joins the Orchestra for a performance of Johannes Brahms' grand musical pillar, Violin Concerto in D Major.

In doing so, Ehnes will be setting bow to string on a piece that he has played for over three decades. Yet, despite his familiarity with this staple of the violin repertoire, he says he still feels a great 'responsibility' in how he conveys the work to audiences.

"I know what [Brahms' Violin Concerto] has meant to me in my life, and that's a very, very great deal," says Ehnes. "It's a big responsibility to be brought in to try to make however many hundreds of people love the piece as much as I do, and I hope that I can do that. I hope that I can communicate that message in such a way that people will come out of it feeling as I do that this art form is wonderful and a reflection of the best parts of human nature."

In addition to the concerto, the evening also features Calgary Phil Music Director Rune Bergmann leading the Orchestra through the stormy passion and sweeping melodies of Jean Sibelius' First Symphony.
